

Sharing for Peace Walk

*Ludgvan Loop Circular Walk,
St Michael's Way (the Cornish Camino),
Penzance*

Saturday, 24th September, 2016

10.00 am for 10.30 am start - finish approx. 4.30 pm
(6.4 miles)

About the route: Join the Cornwall Faith Forum for its Autumn circular walk starting at Marazion through the nature reserve marshes up to the village of Ludgvan; from here to Tremenheere Sculpture Gardens (and viewing of the St Michael's Way exhibition), down to Gulval Church where we will hear from the friends of St Michael's Way more about the 'Cornish Camino'. From here we will make our way across Eastern Green beach back to our starting point at Marazion.

As per our tradition, we will be stopping to listen to readings on the theme of 'Peace and Pilgrimage', so do bring along with you a reading you would like to share, be it from your faith tradition (or none), or just a reading which is meaningful to you. We will have slow-steady pace and walking boots or strong shoes are advisable. Unfortunately the route is not suitable for buggies. Well behaved dogs on leads are welcome. The section of route from Gulval to the beach is along a narrow road where some in the group will wear hi-viz tabards.

Starting point: We will meet at Marazion Station Car Park, TR17 0AA. Parking is quite expensive £5.70 (bring change) so you might want to car share, or know of cheaper car parks close by to use? Folly Field car park. There are toilets at Marazion Station Car Park and at Ludgvan Church Hall. Bring a packed lunch and water with you. Lunch will be at Tremenheere Gardens where we will not take advantage of their hospitality and will purchase drinks (bring money with you).

Contact: For further information contact Rita Stephen, Inter-faith Development Worker tel. 07775 937 485 or info@dorkemmyrn.org.uk or just turn up on the day.

NB Rita's number will be the contact number on the day if there are any queries.
